

Pippa Wilson - Biography

Pippa gained a Linguistics and Phonetics degree from Hull University in 1988 and has worked with voice since qualifying as a speech and language therapist in 1990 (City University); over the last decade Pippa has developed her practice as a vocal coach and therefore works in a range of settings with both healthy and altered voices.

For over 2 decades, Pippa's experience in the NHS brought her in to contact with a variety of voice work (from severe vocal pathologies to presentation skills and singing), and she now works with a range of professionals such as actors, singers, teachers, and broadcasters.

Pippa is based at The Albany Centre in St Albans, Hertfordshire, where she runs Vocalism, her independent practice, coaching clients and running voice workshops for teachers and counsellors. Pippa teaches yoga teacher trainees at Feel Hot Yoga, Watford, and works with voice and accent for Atlas Translations, St Albans. Pippa is a guest tutor at The Actors Centre, London.

Pippa's postgraduate qualifications include training in The Accent Method, Vocal Profile Analysis and the Estill Voice Training System (Levels 1 and 2); her particular interests are breath and the voice, and the ageing voice. She is registered with the Royal College of Speech and Language Therapists and the Health and Care Professions Council, and is a member of the British Voice Association.
